

Kitchen Tea and "Girls Night In" Wax Art Parties

Looking for something different for that special kitchen tea, or Girls Night In fundraiser night? Why not organise an inspiring, arty party to kick off the fun, and spend a few hours Waxing Lyrical and no we don't mean waxing your legs !

After some refreshments, the fun starts to literally heat up as experienced artist Trudie Ann Moore, leads you step by step through techniques of making an artwork. Using delicious coloured waxes cleverly melted with a small iron, and other sexy heat tools, the bride to be and her friends will be amazed how the wax will draw out the hidden artist in each person and see incredible abstract art appearing in front of their eyes.

The afternoon will culminate in the completion of a 30cm x 30cm canvas in colours of their choosing. Each guest will have a finished artwork to take home that will complement their own home or office decor, and which will serve as a momento of the bride to be's special time with her friends. Small gold screws and wire will be provided so your art will be ready to hang.

For a "Girls Night In" Fundraiser, all monies from raffle tickets and door prizes organised by the hostess will go to the chosen charity, as well as a percentage of the cost for the art class. Wax artwork dries immediately, so you can take your painting with you. All materials including protective aprons are supplied .

COMPANY TEAM BUILDING WITH WAX ART

Are you looking for ways to inspire, motivate, and unite your team ? Artist Trudie Ann Moore can provide an experience which is fun, creative, and rewarding. Your staff will be talking about how they were amazed at being able to connect with their artist within. The wax art experience is different to other types of art as it is immediate. With no right or wrong outcomes, this form of expression builds confidence and increases self-esteem. Using a small craft iron and other heat tools, Trudie will lead your team members step by step through simple yet effective techniques, creating unique cards which are artworks in their own right. Once the basics have been covered, each member will be given a canvas and be able to create a contemporary painting which will have colleagues, friends and family alike, in awe.

Everyone will leave at the end of the session with pieces of art they can be proud of and be able to hang in their home or office. All the artworks can be tailored to suit individual home or office decor.

Wax artwork dries immediately, so your team can take their paintings with them. Small gold screws and wire will be provided so the art will be ready all ready to hang.